The science behind losing inches & feeling great!

The Slim'n'Tone Clinic makes losing inches easy, especially from stubborn fatty areas like your belly, hips, arms and legs.

Better still, it's fast, pain free and can allow you to reach your ideal size in as few as 12 sessions.

‘100% pain free’

The treatment works using ultrasound technology similar to that used in the ultrasound scanning machines. The frequency of the sound wave targets fat cells, causing them to turn into a liquefied state.

This liquid fat drains away via 72 hours, leaving treated areas with a flatter and firmer appearance.

ULTRASONIC LIPO FAT REDUCTION RESULTS

Slimming Treatment on Thighs

It is typical that as we get older, a build up of cellulite and fatty tissue can become a problem. Ultrasonic lipo can reduce this fat tissue and boost confidence when wearing shorts, skirts or beachwear. Targeting fat build up on the thighs can certainly make you feel better about yourself.

Fat Reduction on Bottom

Cellulite and fatty tissue is another common problem around the buttocks. Our slimming clinic will often treat this area at the same time as the legs and thighs to achieve maximum fat loss. Again, a welcome confidence booster. As your treatment progresses, your smile becomes wider!

Ultrasonic Lipo Treatment to the Back and

Hips

Slim'n'Tone weight loss treatments can target specific areas of fat, meaning that ongoing slimming treatments can be the most productive solution. Why not get things started with your thighs, gradually moving onto your legs and finishing with your lower back.

Fat Loss in the Stomach Area

Along with fat loss treatments to the thighs and buttocks, treating the stomach area for weight loss using Ultrasonic Lipo is incredibly popular. An extremely common goal for women following the birth of a child is to regain one's body shape and lose weight. The stomach can be one of these key target areas for fat reduction.

Ultrasonic Lipo can help reduce banding and fat build up that would otherwise be hard to shake off.

Targeting Weight Loss Throughout the Body Ultrasonic Lipo treatment is completely non-invasive. Therefore fat loss can be tackled throughout the body without discomfort. Following this fat loss treatment, a sensible regime of exercise, water intake and a low calorie diet can contribute to keeping your rejuvenated body shape.

Police investigation after girl, 12, raped

POLICE have stepped up patrols near a play area after a 12-year-old girl was raped.

The victim was on her own in the play park in Harrowden, Bradville, when a man pulled her into nearby woodland, attacked her and fled.

The incident, which happened about 3pm on March 23, was only reported to police on Saturday and yesterday a specialist search team was examining the area.

The man is described as white, aged around 45 and of skinny build. He had very short grey/black hair, spoke with a Scottish accent and was wearing a black leather jacket, blue jeans and black Dr Marten boots.

Investigating officer, Det Chief Insp

Justin Fletcher, said: "We would urge anyone who saw the victim or a man answering this description in the area around that time to contact us as a matter of urgency.

"We take all allegations of a sexual nature very seriously and understand how difficult it can be for victims to come forward. While this was a very traumatic incident for the victim, it is also very rare. We would like to reassure the community that we are investigating the matter fully and patrols will be in the area to provide extra reassurance."

Police are appealing for any witnesses to contact the non-emergency number 101 quoting URN 589 05/05/13, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Show your love for MK

OUR city has seen its fair share of 'bad' news.

Murders, stabbings, machete-wielding robbers, Reservoir Dogs-style kidnap and this week the rape of a 12-year-old near a park (see above) are just some of the big news stories that have been reported.

Funding cuts, local charities facing difficult futures and the Milton Keynes and North Bucks Chamber of Commerce ceasing trading have all added to the doom and gloom.

But amid all this there have been some shining examples of why Milton Keynes is such a vibrant and exciting place to live and work.

Residents have joined forces to clean up their estates and promote what's good about their area, organisations have worked together to bring the Rugby World Cup to stadi-ummk (see page 5) and thousands of people helped make the city a national talking point as #LoveMK trended on social networking site Twitter last Wednesday.

MK NEWS' involvement in the Sport Relief Community Cash scheme and the Milton Keynes Women of the Year awards have also highlighted the great work that's going on in the city.

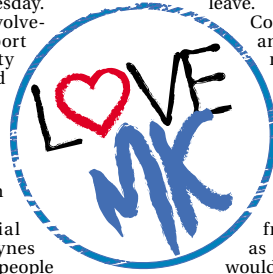

What's special about Milton Keynes is the spirit of the people who live here.

For all the issues and challenges it faces, many people have come here, fallen in love with the place and made it their home. Many people have said that once you move to Milton Keynes, you never want to leave.

Community matters here and MK NEWS wants to reflect that. We realise the role a local newspaper can play in supporting its community and promise to help you feel good about this special place whenever we can.

We will not shy away from reporting bad news as and when it happens. It would not be right to impose a ban on negative news as we have a responsibility to report everything that goes on.

And with the help of our readers we hope to get enough support to hold an event to celebrate everything that is good about our city.

MK NEWS editor, Cally Jenkins, said: "The team here think it would be amazing to show just how much pride residents and businesses have in Milton Keynes and by doing so we hope to prove that our city is a fantastic place to live and work."

"Please help us to celebrate all that is special about MK, such as the work of volunteers, charity events and the achievements of residents."

"Do you know someone doing something good for their community? Is there an unsung hero doing extraordinary work? Has a youngster or group achieved something special? Let us know why you love MK."

The Mayor who lost her Merc

A CHEEKY thief nicked Milton Keynes Mayor Catriona Morris' limousine from the end of her drive.

The chauffeur was helping adjust her chain of office before setting off to an official engagement.

When they turned round two minutes later, the shiny black Mercedes had vanished. But fortunately Cllr Morris didn't have to catch the bus to hear the historic Rugby World Cup announcement at stadium.mk.

For taxi firm Raffles immediately rushed out a replacement Merc to her home in Broughton.

She said: "It seems the thief reversed off at speed and almost mowed down some builders working nearby. We were only about 30ft away, but we never saw or heard a thing.

"My term of office ends next week and it has been a very successful year. But I suppose now I'll always be remembered as the Mayor who lost her Mercedes!"

On the look out: PC Andy Perry is one of the officers using the CCTV van to prevent crime in MK

Police's CCTV van is 'putting off criminals'

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

POLICE in Milton Keynes believe their CCTV van is acting as a deterrent to criminals.

The van, which is operated jointly by Thames Valley Police and Milton Keynes Council, is a purpose-built vehicle that can capture images by itself, but can also be connected to CCTV cameras on street lamp posts.

The van, which is estimated to cost more than £100,000, can capture images in high quality detail hundreds of yards away and its footage has been used in court convictions.

The van was used in the disturbance riots in Milton Keynes in August 2011 and according to one officer who uses it, its ability to record evidence and act as a deterrent is vitally important.

PC Andy Perry, a neighbourhood supervisor at Newport Pagnell Police Station, said: "As an operational police officer, I think the mobile CCTV facility is a fantastic evidence gathering tool for the police."

His words were echoed by Detective Superintendent Barry Halliday, Local Police

Area Commander for Milton Keynes, who said: "The CCTV van is a great example of Thames Valley Police and our partners at Milton Keynes Council working together to make Milton Keynes a safer place to live, work and visit."

"We monitor the deployment of the CCTV van on a daily basis, sending it to areas where we see crime is on the increase and we have seen that when it is deployed, crime in that area reduces."

"It has a dual purpose of acting as a deterrent as well as having the potential to catch criminals in the act of committing a crime."

Brian promotes business

INCOMING mayor Cllr Brian White will launch a business conference by outlining his plans to promote Milton Keynes across the globe.

Cllr White, who will take over as mayor from Catriona Morris in the next couple of weeks, plans to open up city businesses to more than 200 major cities around the world in a global partnership of trade and commerce.

He will speak at the MK International Business City Virtual Conference, which will outline how local businesses can promote themselves in all four corners of the globe.

Cllr White will also reveal plans to attend the World Smart Cities Expo in Barcelona in November and launch new awards such as Young Entrepreneur, Major Exporter and Most Sustainable Development of the Year.

The initiative, organised by business and technology forum Biztech, is being launched at the Milton Keynes College Chaffron Way Campus tomorrow at 5.30pm.

Television fame: But 'brave' mum-of-three Jaz Ampaw-Farr failed to impress Lord Sugar

TV Apprentice Jaz is fired

LOCAL mum-of-three Jaz Ampaw-Farr heard the words she dreaded last night ... "You're fired."

The former teacher who now runs her own literacy business was the first person to be kicked off BBC One's The Apprentice.

But Jaz, 41, who lives in Grange Farm, Milton Keynes, wasn't too downhearted.

She said: "It was still great fun, wild and exhilarating all at the same time. I'd do it again.

"Obviously I was gutted to be fired before I'd had the chance to show how amazing I am.

"I really wanted to get through to the end of the process because my business plan was phenomenal.

"I had a brilliant strategy – it just didn't work out!"

Jaz reckons she lost out because she volunteered to be project manager.

Lord Sugar said it had been 'very, very brave' but added: "Was it clever? I don't think so. There was terrible mayhem going on...I do believe that your biggest mistake was jumping in too quickly."

Jaz – who describes her job as a 'Phonics Ninja' – said: "It was still a great experience for me."

Child walks out of nursery alone

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A NURSERY has boosted its safety standards – after a two-year-old boy managed to leave the premises alone.

The incident happened at Ducklings Preschool in Holborn Crescent, Tattenhoe Pavilion.

And since then the owner of the group, Deborah Walters, has said stringent measures have been put in place to stop it happening again.

She said: "The child in question managed to get past the entrance of the building.

"They left while the parents were collecting and we informed the advisory body at the time.

"The company has since introduced new safety measures.

"We had never experienced anything like this before and children's safety is paramount to us."

The new measures include a checking out system, where the children line-up and are ticked off a list as they leave one by one.

The mother of the two-year-old, who did not wish to be named, was left horrified after turning up to collect her son and finding he wasn't there.

She told MK NEWS: "They didn't even know he was gone.

"There was hardly any staff there and when I asked where he was they just said 'oh he was here a minute ago'.

"We found him near the road. Anything could have happened, he could have been hit and run over."

She has since removed her child from Ducklings, which also has preschools in Westcroft, Monkston and Emerson Valley.

Man pushed out of window in burglary

A MAN was threatened at knifepoint and pushed out of a window when burglars struck at his home.

Five men knocked on the door of the house in Stourhead Gate, Westcroft, and forced their way in when it was answered.

The man was forced upstairs at knifepoint to look for money and jewellery and while attempting to escape, he was pushed from the first floor window. He suffered injuries to his legs and back and was treated at Milton Keynes Hospital.

The other occupants were assaulted downstairs before the burglars left with a small amount of cash in a black car, possibly a Vauxhall Corsa.

They were all Asian men with their faces concealed by scarves and are believed to have spoken with a Pakistani accent.

Investigating officer, Det Sgt Luke Grove, said: "This was a particularly aggressive burglary in the presence of the occupants including young children.

"We would encourage anyone who saw a group of men in the area behaving suspiciously to contact us.

"We would also like to speak to anyone who saw a suspicious small black car in the location that night.

"Incidents such as these are not common and I would like to reassure the public that we are investigating fully and patrols will be in the area to provide reassurance."

Anyone who witnessed this incident, which took place at 11.10pm on Thursday, should contact Det Sgt Grove on the Thames Valley Police non-emergency number 101, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

'Astounded' by cyclist

I AM astounded at the audacity of the grandad in last week's story Cyclists 'treated like trash in MK'.

When I came to Milton Keynes, at its virtual conception, it was billed as the city of the car.

The redways were planned into the structure to encourage walking and cycling and the grid system of dual carriageways for easy motoring – a system unique in the UK.

Now we have cyclists wanting to take over the highways.

A motorist must take driving lessons at exorbitant cost, then pass a test.

They have to buy a vehicle, pay road tax and insurance and purchase fuel, none of which is cheap.

A cyclist can go to a shop, buy a bike and immediately use the highways to the detriment of any other road user without any input or training whatsoever.

Maybe if these cyclists contributed we could get some long overdue road repairs.

Grandad motorist

Do not cut benefits

CUTS in benefits are an unjust attack on the poor.

Now, millions more are being hit by the bedroom tax, cuts in council tax benefit, the end of Disability Living Allowance and

Please stop roads from going to pot

WHEN are the promised road repairs going to start?

Because of all the rough rides in the car I decided to go by bus (the 5A) from Stony Stratford to Central Milton Keynes.

What a journey! Have any of our councillors tried it? If not, may I suggest they do so.

I'm surprised the bus didn't break down. The passengers were shaken about, not because of the driver, but because the roads are so bad.

The worst road on this particular journey, but by all means not the only one in a dreadful state, was through Stacey Bushes. It shook us all and the bus rattled about terribly.

We were promised that road repairs would be a priority. So far there is little evidence of any repairs being done. It seems Milton Keynes Council says one thing and then does not act upon it. Please, please, please get some road repairs up and running. The roads are in a terrible state.

other vicious cuts.

In one of the richest countries in the world, the rise of food banks, destitution and poverty is not acceptable.

People receiving benefits did not cause the banking and economic crisis and we do not accept them being a scapegoat to pay for it.

In March 2013 the Campaign for Benefit Justice held a summit in central London that brought together tenants, disabled people, trade unions, the unpaid and low paid as one national voice to end the war on the poor.

Another summit will take place on Saturday. All who support us

Collecting unpaid corporate tax, paying a living wage, capping private rents, upgrading and greening homes and building a new generation of first-class, energy-efficient council homes would be the same way to build for growth and give people a decent standard of living and a stake in a just society.

We call upon Milton Keynes Council to follow the lead of other councils in the country by making a commitment not to take legal action against or evict tenants who fall into arrears as a result of the under occupancy/bedroom tax and the new 20 per cent council tax charge.

Mark's Work Focus

MP Mark Lancaster helps care provider

Carers are the unsung heroes of our city

THOUSANDS of people in Milton Keynes require care every day and with so much change going on within the system at the moment, I thought it only right that I went out and saw first-hand the work our carers do.

I was taken on for 'work experience' by Home Instead Senior Care, which is an independent care provider based in Milton Keynes.

It offers help ranging from personal care, such as assistance with bathing, dressing and eating, to offering home help like cleaning and shopping or just companionship.

I met Jasmine, pictured, who has been a carer for a year now, and we went to help Phil, who has dementia and lives on his own so Jasmine's assistance is a life line to him.

All of the carers who work with people with dementia have to be trained on the Alzheimer's and Dementia scheme as CAREGivers, giving them specialist skills in order to properly look after those in need.

Visiting once a day, Jasmine looks after Phil in all sorts of ways, ensuring that he is fed and the house is kept clean and tidy.

What became apparent to me though, as I rolled up my sleeves and helped Jasmine with the daily routine, was that possibly the most important aspect of the care given was the companionship. Phil was particularly pleased to see us both and as the sun shined outside we managed to lighten his day too.

Following my time with Jasmine and Phil, I darted to the other side of the city to meet Rachel who was caring for John.

He has a brain tumour and so the care offered was slightly different and involved more personal care.

It struck me how trusting both John and Rachel were of each other and while I emptied the bins and tidied the house, it was clear that one of the most important parts of the job is to build trust and a rapport.

Carers have to deal with anything that faces them as they go about on their daily visits and I was incredibly impressed with the level of compassion and professionalism both Jasmine and Rachel showed.

They truly are the unsung heroes of our city.

Celebration: Figures including Pete Winkelman, Andrew Geary and Catriona Morris on Thursday

World Cup could bring in £100m

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes has been named as a Rugby World Cup host city.

And the news is set to have a huge impact on the city's economy, with estimates by Destination Milton Keynes (DMK) showing it could boost it by £100million.

An announcement was made at stadiummk on Thursday, which confirmed the home of the Dons will be a venue for three matches when England holds the tournament in 2015.

The news was welcomed by DMK chief executive Steven Gordon-Wilson.

He said: "Tourism generates approximately £200million for the local economy, with £38million of that represented by international visits. When you consider that the capacity of stadiummk is increasing to 32,000, and matches between the likes of France and America are scheduled, this number can only skyrocket."

"I would conservatively

SCHEDULED GAMES

- October 1: France vs USA/Canada
- October 3: Samoa vs an Asian qualifier
- October 6: Oceania qualifier vs a play-off winner estimate that – all things considered – the visitor economy will likely benefit to the tune of around £100million."

Dons chairman Pete Winkelman had toiled behind the scenes for months on the bid, with help from rugby clubs, Northampton Saints, Milton Keynes Council and other partners.

The city will host three pool games in the tournament, which will bring an estimated 200,000 people to the city.

The announcement has been a long time in the making. Last year the council pledged £135,000 to help with the city's bid and in March the Sunday Times claimed the city had made the cut.

Geary: 'We're on the sporting map'

MILTON Keynes Council leader Andrew Geary said a lot of hard work went into MK's successful Rugby World Cup bid.

"What else can you say? It's an absolutely fantastic day for MK," he said.

"It's been a long time coming but we're finally on the international sporting map.

"There's been a lot of hard work but it's been really enjoyable.

"We've got the prize. If significant dates in the history of this city are put somewhere, May 2, 2013 will be one of them."

'History in the making'

DONS chairman Pete Winkelman could barely contain his delight after stadiummk was selected as a Rugby World Cup venue.

"It's history in the making," he said.

"This is the third biggest sporting event in the world and it's coming here to Milton Keynes.

"Ten years ago you would not believe that would be possible.

"But that's what this city is about. It's got big ambition, but it's got the ability to deliver that vision.

"It's the work of a whole host of people who have made it possible.

"I want not just the fans of the countries playing to be coming to stadiummk, I want the people of MK to make the most of this.

"Instead of watching it on the telly, we're going to have it here. I want everyone in MK to come out. We will fill this stadium to capacity for every game."

Staying: TS whose gang caused terror. We pixelated his face after a judge ruled he can't be named

Riot thug can stay in UK

A FOREIGN thug who terrified people as he rampaged through Milton Keynes and Bletchley during the 2011 riots cannot be deported because of his 'right to family life'.

Two senior immigration court judges also ruled that the 23-year-old Zimbabwean must not be identified – despite him being named when he appeared before Milton Keynes magistrates.

Instead we are only allowed to refer to him by the initials 'TS'.

He was jailed for 15 months at Aylesbury Crown Court after admitting violent disorder following the riots. The court heard he was part of 'a mindless mob' of between 30 and 50 youths who destroyed dozens of shop fronts.

A woman bus driver was left 'distressed and frightened for her life' after TS attacked her bus as she tried to drive away.

But the immigration court judges ruled that he could stay in Britain because he came here as a child and has had a steady girlfriend for three years.

Ebenezer Markrose, 23, who worked at Sai Supermarket in Bletchley, which was targeted by TS' gang, said: "He should be punished and deported."

Victor Kong, whose Chinese takeaway was also hit, added: "If you come to this country you should behave. It's not right to come and cause trouble. If you do that, you should leave."

The Government had vowed to deport any foreigners convicted over the riots.

Conservative MP Dominic Raab, who is a member of Parliament's Joint Committee on Human Rights, said yesterday he found it 'disturbing' that the judges granted anonymity to TS because the decision appeared to 'cosset' violent criminals.

He added: "Cases like these warp the moral balance of British justice and make 'human rights' sound like dirty words to people."

Blazing row over 'selling-off' crem

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE Labour Party has warned Milton Keynes Council against trying to sell off the crematorium.

Angry group leader Peter Marland said that privatising it would be 'stupidity'.

He said: "Any attempt to sell the crematorium would meet fierce opposition from us."

"We are willing to fight to keep the family silver and build services for the people of the city – not simply let things be sold off so that someone else can take all the profit. The current administration is practising the tired old model of the past – 'If it is worth something, flog it now for some quick cash'.

Cllr Marland claimed council bosses had refused to give him assurances that a review of the Bereavement Services would not lead to the Crownhill crematorium being sold off.

But Cllr Peter Geary, cabinet member for communities, said last night the council could not make a decision before the review was completed.

However he insisted: "It is just not true to say we are planning to sell off the crematorium. We would not have invested £6million if we intended selling it."

"And it's gross hypocrisy for Labour to talk about selling off the family silver. They sold off the Food Centre for practically nothing when they were short of cash during the 1990s."

"We won't be taking any lessons from them. Instead we will do what is in the best interests of the people of Milton Keynes."

MKNEWS BRIEFS

Fun in the May Day sun

THERE was fun in the sun all around Milton Keynes over the bank holiday weekend. Children danced round the maypole in Campbell Park, there was face-painting at New Bradwell St Peter's football ground and the Fragfest raised money for charity at the Prince Albert pub in Bradwell Village. See our website for all the pictures.

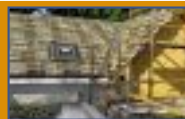

High Court charity rule

A CHARITY scheme which could cost local authorities massive losses on business rates is being heard at the High Court. Mr Justice Sales must rule whether the Public Safety Charitable Trust is entitled to charitable relief on empty commercial premises it operates from in Milton Keynes, South Cambridgeshire and Chester.

Views wanted on sport

LOCAL residents are being asked for their views on shaping a new strategy for developing sport and leisure facilities in Milton Keynes. A survey can be completed online at www.milton-keynes.gov.uk/leisure-facilities. Cllr Peter Geary said: "It is vital that we find out what local residents want."

Get £500 for your community group

JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

MK NEWS has teamed up with housebuilder Taylor Wimpey to offer local good causes the chance to receive £500 in a Community Chest initiative.

We want you, our readers, to nominate worthy causes in the Milton Keynes area which you feel are most deserving of this cash award.

It could be a local charity which relies heavily on donations to keep up its good work in the community or an organisation that makes a real difference to the place where you live.

We are accepting nominations for the Community Chest until noon on Wednesday, May 22.

We will then produce a shortlist of the most deserving causes, which will appear in the paper, before inviting the public to vote for their favourite. The group which receives the most votes will receive £500.

Christine Scarborough, sales and marketing director

Money, money, money: Sandra Carnaghan, sales executive at Taylor Wimpey, which has teamed up with MK NEWS to give away cash to a good cause in the city for Taylor Wimpey North Thames, which is currently building high-quality new homes at Oakbrook in the city's Newton Leys, said: "We are delighted to be teaming up with MK NEWS to offer readers the chance to nominate their favourite local cause to receive £500."

MK NEWS editor, Cally Jenkins, added: "The Community Chest is a great way to recognise the unsung heroes of your neighbourhood and I'd urge readers to get involved and nominate their favourite cause."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Hubby's grave 'is a big pond'

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A GRIEVING great grandmother has told how she found her husband's grave completely under water just ten days after his funeral.

Carmel Thomas, 73, said: "It was heartbreaking – only the tops of the flowers I had left there were showing.

"His whole grave was just one big pond. I was absolutely disgusted."

Mrs Thomas said a huge area of the Selbourne Avenue Cemetery had been 'totally waterlogged'.

Former train driver David, 81, of Cheyneys Walk, Bletchley, died of leukaemia just after Christmas.

Mrs Thomas said: "It snowed on the day of his funeral so everything looked fine. But when it thawed and we had a lot of rain, that caused the problems."

Mrs Bernadette Morgan, of Somerset Close, Bletchley, was also horrified at the state of her 73-year-old father Richard Whelan's grave.

Heartbreaking: Grave under water at the cemetery

She said: "It looked like he had been buried in a swimming pool."

As previously reported by MK NEWS, there has been a problem with graves flooding at the cemetery.

Ward councillor Mick Legg believes it was built in the wrong place.

He said: "The council was warned at the time about the danger of flooding.

"It is very hard on families to see their loved ones' graves under water. The cemetery is not fit for purpose at the moment. We need to get civil engineers and drainage contractors to sort it out."

A spokesman for Milton Keynes Council said: "There has been a historical problem at this site, but we believe we are close to a solution.

"We recently received the findings of a drainage report and the next step is to start the tender process to find the right contractor for the job. We expect this to happen by the end of May, after which work will start as soon as practicably possible."

State-of-the-art: An artist's impression of the new waste treatment plant planned for Wolverton

Waste plan moves on

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A GIANT waste treatment plant expected to save taxpayers more than £50million and generate enough electricity to power 11,000 homes has moved a step nearer.

Contractors AmeyCespa has announced it has applied for planning permission and an environment permit for the state-of-the-art facility on an existing industrial site in Dickens Road, Wolverton.

Project manager, Andrew Cousins, said: "It will use the most up-to-date and cost-effective technologies to deal with Milton Keynes' waste.

"As much as possible will be recycled, while energy and electricity will be generated from waste which would otherwise have gone to landfill."

At the moment around 60,000 tonnes of household 'black sack' rubbish goes to landfill each year and this total is forecast to reach 80,000 tonnes by 2040.

It is hoped the new plant will cut that by 95 per cent and save carbon dioxide equivalent to that which would be created by one million road trips from Milton Keynes to London. Machines will initially sort the waste material, extracting recyclable items like plastic bottles and cans.

An anaerobic digester will then process food and biodegradable items to generate energy and leave behind a compost-like material.

Finally the remaining waste will fuel an advanced thermal treatment plant where it will be turned into a gas that burns to generate high-temperature steam and create electricity in a turbine.

AmeyCespa hopes to begin construction work next year and open the facility in 2016.

Akabusi urges men to foster

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

FORMER Olympic athlete Kriss Akabusi is calling for more men in Milton Keynes to be foster parents.

Kriss, who himself was fostered as a four-year-old, is raising awareness ahead of Foster Care Fortnight, which starts on Monday, and Father's Day on June 16.

He stood alongside foster dads in front of 9,000 empty seats at stadiummk to represent the number of foster parents that are needed.

"I urge you to consider carefully becoming a foster parent," said the 400m hurdles European champion.

"If it is right for you, you could be the love that a child has never known."

His words were echoed by MK Dons manager Karl Robinson, who said: "In my eyes, foster parents are unsung heroes. They ensure children are able to live in a safe and loving environment at times of stress and trauma.

"As a parent it is extremely

Sprinting in to help: Kriss Akabusi wants more men in MK to become foster parents comforting knowing there are foster parents in Milton Keynes who are willing to provide a caring home to children whose parents are unable to."

National statistics show that on any one day there are now a record 61,700 children living with foster families, with others entering and leaving care throughout the year.

As of last month, there were 216 children in foster care in Milton Keynes.

As part of the campaign Fostering: Are You in the Frame? Milton Keynes Council's fostering team will be running a local drop in at the reception area of Saxon Court, 502 Avebury Boulevard, on May 15 from 6-7pm.

Anyone who would like an informal chat about becoming a foster carer is invited to attend.

Foster carers come from all walks of life and all sections of the community. They offer children a nurturing, caring home environment where the children begin to thrive and reach their potential.

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who could foster a child or a sibling group across all age ranges. Children could be placed in your care for anything ranging from just a few days to a few months or years.

As a foster carer, you will be provided with a comprehensive package of support and training together with a generous professional fee.

It's a challenging role; one which will always ask a great deal from you. However, providing a home to a child who is unable to live with their family for a period of time can be wonderfully rewarding for everyone.

As part of our National Foster Care Fortnight activities between 13 and 26 May, we are holding an informal drop in evening for anyone who is interested in finding out more about becoming a foster carer.

Drop in evening details are as follows:

Date: 15 May 2013.

Time: 6 - 7pm.

Venue: Saxon Court, 502 Avebury Boulevard, Milton Keynes MK9 3HS.

My family were told I would die

MK NEWS reporter JAMES AVERILL talks to Donna Gibb about how she owes her life to our local air ambulance

Life saver: The air ambulance has flown over 14,000 missions

DONNA Gibb doesn't remember much about the accident that almost cost her life – but she does know who to thank for saving it.

On August 23 last year, Donna crashed into a lorry while driving, but has no recollection of what happened.

"All I know is that the air ambulance saved my life," she said.

"The whole team there are amazing. I owe so much to them and people don't realise what an important service it is. It took me an hour-and-a-half to get to RAF Benson to thank them when I was better, it took them just 12 minutes to come and rescue me.

"Without them I would have died. I had severe brain injuries and my feet were pretty much hanging off. I couldn't have gone to the local hospital, I needed specialist care at the John Radcliffe in Oxford. Without them I wouldn't be here."

It was a traumatic time for Donna's family. Her husband

Derek, a lorry driver, and children Matthew, Melissa and Joshua, were rushed to the hospital by police to see her.

"My family were told I was going to die. That must have been so difficult for them, but it has brought us all closer.

"When I first came out of a coma I didn't recognise them. I punched my husband in the face and bit my daughter on the nose because I didn't know who they were.

"But I'm better now and me and Derek have renewed our

How we ironed it out for the Queen

BY MAL TATTERSALL

editor@mk-news.co.uk

THINGS didn't run too smoothly the first time the Queen travelled on the revamped Royal Train in 1977, it was revealed at the weekend.

She complained that the ironing board was not up to scratch, former train foreman Leo Coleman said.

And Prince Philip was not happy with his shaving mirror which also had to be replaced.

That was just one amusing anecdote 91-year-old Leo and ex-colleague Chris Hillyard regaled visitors with during Wolverton Works' 175th anniversary celebrations on Saturday.

The pair also let slip how during the 1940s cheeky apprentices would be dared to sleep in the old king's bed on the train. And Chris admitted he once missed the train's departure and had to catch it up at Perth in Scotland.

An appeal in last week's MK

Speech: From left, Phil Marsh, Leo Coleman and Chris Hillyard at the event and, inset, the item that could not be identified NEWS for readers to dig out old artefacts and mementos from the works had some spectacular results.

Among the items taken along was a silk map, probably dating from 1834, that showed a proposed railway between London Paddington and Birmingham.

There was also a signal box nameplate, 100-year-old cast iron builders' plates and rare firemen's helmet badges.

But one item puzzled everybody - what appeared to be a giant corkscrew with a double-curved copper handle. Can anyone tell us what it is?

Huts that helped to win war get facelift

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THESE pictures show how the derelict old huts at Bletchley Park used by code-breakers during the war will be transformed.

With their rotting windows and sections covered in plastic they look like something off an allotment.

But, as reported in last week's MK NEWS, a £7.4million project to renovate huts three and six will restore them to their former glory.

The former card index building, Block C, will also be turned into a world class visitor and exhibition centre.

The artists' impressions above show how the buildings will look once the work is completed. The information gathered in the huts by codebreakers during the Second World War is credited with shaving between two and four years off the hostilities.

Iain Standen, chief executive officer of the Bletchley Park Trust, said: "This is an exciting, unparalleled milestone in our 20-year history."

"All the fixtures and fittings will be put back in as close as we can to those used in the 1940s. We will try and replicate the Second World War feeling as much as we can, and where we can source the original material we will."

The work is scheduled to be finished next year for an official opening in June to coincide with the 70th anniversary of the D-Day landings.

Author and Bletchley Park

trustee Michael Smith said the timing is appropriate.

"The intelligence collected by British codebreakers ahead of D-Day and the invasion of Europe provided an extraordinarily comprehensive picture of the German defences and preparations," he said.

Matt blossoms to win spot at show

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A MAN from Milton Keynes has beaten 19,000 of his colleagues to help a multi-gold winning gardener at this year's Chelsea Flower Show.

Matt Tompkins, who works at Homebase in Winterhill, has won the chance to assist garden designer Adam Frost, who has won three consecutive awards at the prestigious show.

And it's all the more impressive given this is only Matt's first year working with plants, as he had spent the previous eight years as a shop floor manager at the store.

"Last year I didn't have much of a clue I have to admit, so it's amazing that I beat all those other people," the 27-year-old told MK NEWS.

Matt will be working with Adam to bring to life his modern family garden, named Sowing Seeds of Change, which has been designed to encourage people to engage with nature and enjoy an environment where they can garden, relax and entertain.

Green-fingered: Matt Tompkins will help build a garden at the prestigious Chelsea Flower Show

"It is going to be a great experience," added Matt. "I'm really looking forward to working and learning with Adam and being able to bring back some tips to tell my store colleagues and customers."

Matt will head off to Chelsea on May 15 to help arrange the garden and will return to the show on May 22. The event runs from May 21-25.

Matt was nominated by regional manager Chris Jones for his horticultural knowledge and commitment to customers at the Milton Keynes store.

He said: "This is a fabulous opportunity for Matt to be part of such a prestigious and world renowned event such as the RHS Chelsea Flower Show."

Day celebrates midwives' work

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

MIDWIVES at Milton Keynes Hospital have described how much they love their jobs as a day was held to celebrate their work.

The International Day of the Midwife, held on Sunday, aimed to raise awareness of the work they do and the support that is available to new mums.

To mark the day the hospital also raised awareness of the Supervisors of Midwives (SoM) – experienced midwives who have undertaken extra training to give advice to expectant and new mothers on the care they receive.

Workers on the hospital's labour ward also marked the day by having lunch together – a clear example of the superb morale on the ward at the moment.

They have an above average number of births that don't require aid or instruments of

It's a tough job... but I love the variety. No two days are ever the same when you're a midwife.

Rachel Eastaff Hollinshead

68 per cent. This compares to the national average of 60 per cent. The ward has about 170 staff who deliver nearly 4,000 babies every year.

It's a job that midwife Rachel Eastaff Hollinshead finds incredibly rewarding.

She became a midwife in 2010, but had been working at the hospital since 2004.

"I chose it because it was always something that I had wanted to do," she said.

"It's a tough job that requires a cool head, but I love the variety. No two days are ever the same when you're a midwife."

And the midwives were given the thumbs up by new mum Nicola Severn, who gave birth to daughter Saskia on May 1.

"They have been absolutely brilliant, so lovely and helpful," Nicola told MK NEWS.

"Everyone gives the NHS a bad time, but they have been really good to me here."

'Recycle for MK' free waste app makes recycling even easier

Milton Keynes Council has launched 'Recycle for MK', a free app which helps residents know what, when and how to recycle, developed as a result of a school Young Enterprise project.

Residents using the app are sent a reminder every week telling them when their collection is due – and it takes into account any date changes following a Bank Holiday.

Anyone unsure of whether a particular item can be recycled can look it up on the app and it will tell them whether it can go in our weekly collection service or whether to take it to a Community Recycling Centre.

Main features include:-

What goes in my recycling?

A comprehensive guide to what can be recycled and which container it goes in

Collection reminders

Notifications are sent out every week reminding residents to put their waste out for collection

Changes to collection days

Users receive a notification if their waste collection day has changed following a Bank Holiday

Cancelled collections

If waste collections are cancelled for any reason, such as heavy snow, the app will let users know

Local Community Recycling Centres

The app will tell residents where to find their local recycling point or Community Recycling Centre – and even give directions on how to get there

The app can be downloaded from the Apple app store (for iPhone and iPod) or through Google Play for Android devices – just search for "Recycle for MK".

The app was developed as a result of a Young Enterprise project at Walton

High School in which students develop a real business. A Level students Oliver Dean and Tom Yates set up a company called Appload dedicated to app development and discussed the possibility of producing an app for the school with Cllr David Hopkins who works as the school's business manager.

Cllr Hopkins is also portfolio holder for waste and environment at Milton Keynes Council and the students came up with the idea of creating an app for recycling and waste collections and worked closely with the council's waste team on its development.

Cllr Hopkins commented: "This is an excellent example of young people taking the initiative in an enterprising way. They have created an extremely useful app which is free to download and will help avoid confusion over what can and cannot be recycled and remind users of revised collection days."

Facebook users who recently downloaded the app commented: "Simple, easy to use, perfect! Why hasn't this been done before?" Another added: "Brilliant idea – anything to improve and maximise access to the council can only be lauded."

Each week users can receive a reminder telling them when to put their waste out and they can look up items to see whether they can be recycled and how to do this.

How to recycle in Milton Keynes

Use this guide to help sort your rubbish

Tea party held for first class postie

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

VILLAGERS have honoured a postman who had been delivering letters to their homes for 38 years.

Bill Smith, 64, was thanked by residents in Bow Brickhill at a tea party at the village hall in Rushmere Drive when he was presented with a silver photo frame as a memento of the occasion.

Bill said: "It was unbelievable. It seemed like half the village had turned out. It was brilliant, but all I have ever done is my job."

Due to mobility problems, Bill now does light postage delivery at Walton Grange in the mornings and works at the Royal Mail centre in Brinklow in the afternoons.

Mary Preen, who organised the tea party, said: "We all love Bill because he's been so dedicated to us for such a long time. I can't begin to list all the services he's provided for Bow Brickhill, but it was testament to his dedication that everyone came along to thank him."

The king of swing

GLENN Miller was one of the biggest musical icons of the 20th century.

His music is still remembered fondly today, and no more than in this show.

After touring with the History of the Big Bands with Andy Abraham last year, Barisons Swing Band return to The Stables with their new Glenn Miller show featuring the fabulous close harmony group The Three Belles, paying tribute to the well-loved Andrew Sisters.

Miller's matchless string of hit after hit are all here, including Tuxedo Junction, Little Brown Jug, Pennsylvania 6-5000, String of Pearls, In the Mood, Moonlight Serenade, Rhapsody in Blue, Oh When the Saints and Chattanooga Choo Choo, to name just a few.

All played by this fantastic 13-piece big band who excel in the showmanship and pure quality that set the original Miller band miles apart from the rest.

Glenn and Friends takes place on Friday at 8pm. Tickets cost £22.50 from www.stables.org

COME BACK TO RIDING

Children - From 4 years to teenage. We have a wide range of ponies of all sizes and abilities. A great sport to keep fit, build confidence and make new friends.

Birthday Parties - Party with a pony. 2 hours of fun, games and riding with a traditional tea, jolly jockeys for ages 4-10 years.

Adult Returners - Not ridden in years? We have many adults refreshing their skills and rebuilding their confidence. You know you loved it, come and have fun again. Individual and group lessons available. Understanding instructors and a wide range of horses.

Adult Beginners - It's never too late! We have learners who are 60 years young. Try something new, get fit and have fun.

Experienced - used to ride a lot or own a horse in the past? We have a number of excellent dressage and jump horses with instructors to match.

jayforeman

FUNNY man Jay Foreman has more than just comedy in his repertoire.

Jay is what's known as a musical comedian.

Along with his acoustic guitar skills, catchy singalongs and mindless bad taste, Jay looks to be one of the promising up and coming talents around.

Hit subtle humour seems to appeal to more than just students, as his likeability levels sky rocket through the roof with all audiences.

As brother of beatboxer Beadyman, Jay is no stranger to the stage and comes across naturally with a guitar in his hands and an audience before at his feet.

He's playing at The Crown, Stony Stratford, on Thursday, May 16 and tickets, costing £7, are available from www.wegot tickets.com.

mandown

THE best thing about Dead Man Down is its cast.

Featuring box-office stars Colin Farrell and Noomi Rapace, the supporting cast, featuring Dominic Cooper and Isabelle Huppert, is packed with big names from cinema.

Farrell's character, Victor, infiltrates a crime group determined for revenge. But a mysterious girl who lives nearby, Beatrice (Rapace), is out for the same thing too and they make an unlikely pair on a mission of retribution.

Directed by Niels Arden Oplev (The Girl With the Dragon Tattoo), the film is a solid, if unspectacular, action flick, which has a few plot holes but is visually pleasing and well acted.

classicalsounds

MILTON Keynes City Orchestra have their debut performance at new theatre The Venue in Walnut Tree.

They will be performing a Romantic Cello concert, featuring principal cello, Bozidar Vukotic, pictured above, under the baton of principal conductor Sian Edwards.

If Baroque and classical string music is your thing, this concert on Saturday from 7.30-9.30pm is not to be missed. Tickets, costing £10, £20 and £5 for under 18s, are available from 01908 558311, or www.mkco.org/

jointheparty

ESTATE agents haven't had a good press since Mike Leigh's cult classic play, Abigail's Party, first hit our TV screens back in 1977.

The nightmareish Beverley and her harassed, estate agent husband Laurence are throwing a small dinner party in downtown suburbia. As the guests are plied with alcohol, ciggies, cheese and pineapple nibbles and a large helping of Demis Roussos, the evening descends into drunkenness and debauchery in front of the room dividers.

The play, with its deliciously cringe-making 1970s clichéd characters, comes to Milton Keynes Theatre next week. Hannah Waterman is the appalling would-be upwardly mobile hostess Beverly and Martin Marquez, pictured above, plays Laurence.

"Laurence has only been married to Beverley for a year," said Martin, when Judy Riley talked to him recently. "And though he was originally attracted to her, he now sees this really unattractive side.

"He's a man who is interested in art and culture, upwardly mobile but definitely trying to better himself."

In the play, Laurence makes very clear his opinion of Demis Roussos when he says: 'We don't want to listen to that fat Greek caterwauling all night.' But is Martin a fan of Demis Roussos? "Well, I used to really like him and my mum was a real fan but I haven't got any of his records..."

ONE of just two shows in May, metal band Seethe head to new venue MK11.

Seethe's sound is rooted in metal/hardcore citing major inspirations from such bands as Metallica, At the Gates, Unearth and Sick of it All.

They will be supported by Obey and Legions MK. Saturday's gig, taking place at MK11, based at Kiln Farm Club, takes place from 7.30pm-2am.

Admission costs £5 before 11pm and £2 after.

AFTER a hard days night, a trip to watch an amazing tribute to Britain's finest band will cheer you right up.

The Ultimate Beatles are as close as you can get to the real thing and 50 years after the release of Please Please Me, they will aim to do just that by covering some of their greatest songs.

And it's worth mentioning that this group's version of John Lennon just happens to be a Wolverton lad!

WALK and while the day away at The Parks Trust's Walking Festival.

The average person is supposed to walk 10,000 steps a day, but when the scenery around Milton Keynes is so beautiful, who could begrudge you a little extra?

The festivities take place over this weekend and there are more than 14 walks to take your pick from.

Most walks are free, but other events such as orienteering have a small charge, and you have to book online if you want to take part.

To book tickets for the weekend visit www.theparkstrust.com/whats-on.

THE upcoming Eve Dust 514 self-proclaims that it will signal a 'new era in online gaming'.

It will be the first game that is connected to another game of a different platform, the EVE universe, which essentially marries two games.

Coming out on PS3 within the next week, this free-to-play game is a high octane shooter experience with loads of planets for you to explore.

It's impact on the gaming community is sure to be heard soon.

footworkdance

NEARLY a year after opening, Footwork is now seen as a fixture in the city nightlife scene.

Pop along and see for yourself as local DJs Lee Clarke, Will Hignell and Adam T show off some underground bass-driven house sounds.

There is something of a buzz about MK nightlife at the moment and this is a part of it you're sure to enjoy.

Footwork takes place in the upstairs room of the Slug and Lettuce, in the Theatre District.

Entry to the event on Friday night is free from 9pm until 10.30pm, after which a charge of £3 applies.

Saturday's event takes place from 1-3pm and entry is free.

squeezebox

A SQUEEZEBOX isn't a common instrument, so don't pass up this chance to learn more about them.

Julie Bubbles, right, talks you through the history of her instrument, interspersed with some songs.

Meet the Squeezebox takes place from 8-9pm on Wednesday, May 15 at York House in Stony Stratford. Entry is free.

animalshow

THE Home for Unwanted and Lost Animals (HULA) will be holding a fun dog show.

Suitable for humans too, there will be competitions and games for both species, as well as delicious refreshments.

Head down to HULA's HQ at Glebe Farm in Salford Road, Aspley Guise, for the event on Sunday from noon to 4pm. Admission is £2 for adults and £1 for children. For more on what's happening visit www.hularescue.org.

shedtime

OLDER men with time on their hands can have some fun this week.

Men in Sheds is holding its open day and there will be activities such as clay modelling, guitar playing and the chance to help build an electric car and work on a light aircraft.

Multi-Award Winning Offices across the UK

Judges comments from The Sunday Times Estate Agent of the Year Awards

Goodchild's continues to lead the way for great customer service standards and both vendors and buyers alike can rest assured that they will be well taken care of when appointing this agency. Customer service is based around carefully thought out systems and processes, which are adhered to by the entire team.

Use of technology is highly reliable and measurable KPIs are built into the agency software system allowing the senior team to stay fully informed. Staff are rewarded bonuses related to the feedback they receive so there is also a clear impetus for them to make sure they offer the personal touch to clients. Goodchild's has absolutely got the balance spot on.

NISSAN

MODERN APPRENTICESHIPS AT NISSAN TECHNICAL CENTRE EUROPE WORKING IN COLLABORATION WITH BEDFORD COLLEGE

There's no better start to a career in automotive engineering than this, where you will have the opportunity to contribute to the development of the next generation of Nissan models.

You will join our comprehensive training scheme in the Vehicle Test Area, supporting our team of Engineers and Technicians to influence the vehicles of the future. The programme combines, firsthand involvement in our state-of-the-art design and development process with formal training in engineering.

This 3 year Apprenticeship scheme will give you a broad insight into the Design & Development process, leading to an NVQ level 3 qualification and an HNC in Engineering.

All applicants are required to have or expected to achieve 3 A levels at C grade or above to include Mathematics. A full UK drivers licence is essential to the role, if not in place already this must be gained during the apprenticeship.

To apply, please book a place at the initial assessment events being held during half term week commencing 27th May 2013 at Bedford College via the following link

<http://www.bedford.ac.uk/apprenticeships/nissan>

The scheme starts in September and the closing date for booking your place is Friday 24th May 2013. Please ensure you are available for a Nissan assessment centre on the 10th July 2013 any candidates who are successful will need to be able to attend this.

CANCER PARTNERS UK

Business Development Manager
Location: Milton Keynes
Salary: Unspecified
Job Type: Permanent/full-time

Cancer Partners UK is an innovative and dynamic company establishing a network of compact state-of-the-art, image-guided radiotherapy centres across the UK. With the opening of our latest centre in Milton Keynes in 2013, we are seeking a Business Development Manager to make a real impact on its success.

Responsible for driving growth in activity and revenue, we are looking for a candidate who has the ability to work in an environment where relationships with professional groups are the key to achievement.

Results driven, with high levels of determination and initiative, the successful candidate will also require excellent communication skills, a deep understanding of marketing principles and sales management, with a proven ability in targeting and selling a service proposition to diverse audiences.

A knowledge of the private healthcare market and a minimum 5 years business development/marketing experience is desirable but not essential.

The role will be home based and may require evening work to host meetings and events.

If you are interested in applying for this position please send a copy of your CV and an email providing details of your experience to:

Kathy Walker, Head of Human Resources

BEDFORD BOROUGH COUNCIL

Bedford Borough Council takes great care to recruit the very best people so that the services we provide to our community are first class. We believe that the best work gets done in an environment that's enjoyable and which values, supports and encourages the development of its employees. In return we expect our employees to work hard and be committed to help us achieve our vision and share our values.

Adult and Community Services
Senior Practitioner
£30,851 - £33,661 • Quote ref: P000795

An experienced and confident professional, you will be a consultant and adviser within our Community Older Peoples Social Work Team. You will help the Manager to prioritise the team's work, monitor standards of practice and provide supervision - mentoring more junior staff, while managing a small caseload of complex cases.

With the team looking to you for support and guidance, you will have a position of responsibility. It's therefore important that you are a qualified and HCPC-registered Social Worker with significant experience of working with vulnerable adults in a social care setting. You know about current legislation and the field of disability and illness in relation to older people. What's more, you have supervised before and inspired individuals to they perform at their best. Organised and able to express yourself well, you'll be an able deputy for the Manager, championing user and carer-led services.

Housing Options Officer
£19,621 - £21,519 pa pro rata • Quote ref: 0004109
25 hours per week, working 5 hours a day

To succeed in this role you will have experience of working in a housing options service and you will possess a good sound and current knowledge of relevant housing and welfare legislation. You will have excellent verbal communication skills with an ability to quickly identify problems and progress solutions in order to prevent homelessness.

Classroom Teacher

MPS/UPS

- NQTs... Are you looking for an exciting school with excellent support for your first step into a teaching career?
- or
- Are you an experienced teacher looking for an opportunity to work in an innovative and forward thinking school?

Either way, at Chantry we can offer you superb opportunities for professional development in our exciting and successful school. We are looking for a Class Teacher to join our team from September 2013 and welcome applications from both experienced teachers and NQTs. Our school is expanding and staff structures are flexible, so we would welcome applications from all phases - whether your preference is Early Years, Key Stage 1 or Key Stage 2.

We have developed our curriculum to make learning more exciting (so the teaching is too!). In 2010 Ofsted described "a curriculum, frequently referred to as providing the 'wow' factor, which places great emphasis on memorable first-hand experiences through visits or visitors to the school" and they also said "the curriculum is enriched by a very wide range of extra-curricular opportunities." Chantry is a thriving school with an excellent reputation; we place emphasis on developing children's thinking skills within our outstanding curriculum.

We have a highly committed staff team who receive ongoing support and training through a strong induction process and a full in-house training programme. In keeping with our school motto is 'Learning for Life', access to externally provided CPD is available and is encouraged.

Come and visit us to see what else we can offer you.

Your CV

When you send your CV off to a potential employer, remember that you won't be the only one. Hundreds of other people could be applying for the job as well.

So what are you going to do to make you stand out from the crowd? Why should an employer take a chance on you instead of someone else?

Your CV is your first real chance to sell yourself to a potential employer. Most employers will scan through a CV in about 30 seconds so you need to grab their attention from the start - and make them want to invite you for an interview.

There are five main areas to consider when writing your CV:

- Make sure your CV looks the part. Your CV should look clean and tidy - don't scrawl it out on a piece of A4 paper. If you haven't got access to a PC or printer, ask a friend or use your local library. Use a good quality paper and steer clear of fancy borders and front covers.
- Watch out for silly spelling and grammar mistakes. They make you look lazy and show employers that you don't really care. It's not difficult to do a spell check on your PC and if you're really stuck then don't just guess, reach for a dictionary. Get a friend to read through your CV for you - a second opinion is always useful.
- Make sure your CV is well organised. When you list your previous jobs, make sure the dates are correct and try not to leave any gaps. If you took time out to go travelling then say so - employers won't mark you down just because you've tried something new.
- Don't waffle. Remember that employers don't have time to read every word of your CV. Long paragraphs and sentences put people off, so try bullet-points to break up text. Make sure your CV is no longer than two pages long - employers don't want your life history, they just want to see that you've got what it takes to do the job.
- Don't list any failures. Employers have enough trouble finding someone who is right for the job - they don't need help finding reasons not to employ you. If you have to include a mistake from your past, make sure you show the employer that you learnt something from the experience.

Keep it simple

Personal details

Start off with your full name, address, home and mobile phone numbers and email address. If you are offered an interview, the employer will want to get hold of you so give him as many options as possible.

Summary/professional profile

This is the No1 area for selling yourself. Set out your main skills and personal qualities but keep it interesting and tight - one paragraph should do to cover everything.

Education and qualifications

List your qualifications and education history, with the most recent first. You don't need to list the grades for each exam you have passed unless they were exceptional results - simply listing the number and type of exams you've passed is fine. Also, list any relevant professional organisations you belong to and training courses you have been on.

Work experience

Start with your most recent position and work backwards, giving addresses along with start and finish dates. Set out your main responsibilities, duties and most importantly achievements, along with any skills you picked up or improvements you made while you were there. This is a really important section in your CV so make it count - but don't waffle.

If you have not had a full-time job before, detail any part-time jobs you may have held or any placement you have been on.

Other skills

Set out any computer skills you may have and the software you are most familiar with. Can you type, do shorthand or speak a foreign language fluently? If you have a driving licence, let the employer know. If it's clean, tell them.

Interests & hobbies

Briefly list what you get up to in your spare time. Put down any positions you hold in clubs or associations, along with any responsibilities and achievements.

References

Make sure you have at least two people (including one from your previous or current job) who will tell an employer what a thoroughly nice person you are and what a potential asset to the company you would be.

If you want to list them now make sure you include their name, job title, postal & e-mail address and contact phone numbers. Alternatively, just put "Available on request" so the employer knows to follow up references at a later date.

Add a covering letter

The main aim of a covering letter is to encourage an employer to give you a chance. You want them to read your CV, so sell it to them. You should always enclose a covering letter when applying for a job - most employers won't consider you unless you do.

A covering letter should let the employer know why you are interested in the job and why you think you can do it.

The hints and tips below should point you in the right direction:

- Keep it simple. A covering letter should be short and to the point - no more than six paragraphs.
- Mention the job. If you are replying to an advert, mention what the job is and where you saw it. The company may be advertising for other positions and it may not be clear which job you are applying for.
- Sell yourself. Explain why you are the perfect candidate for the job. Show off your strengths and experience. Refer to your CV - if it goes missing then at least an employer will know that you've sent it.
- Check it for mistakes. A silly spelling mistake in a covering letter is likely to cost you your chance of getting an interview. Also, make sure it is addressed to the right person in the right department.

A covering letter can be just as important as a CV in getting you an interview. It's your first point of contact with your potential employer - so make it count.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR PLANNING AND TRANSPORT

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(HORSEFAIR GREEN, STONY STRATFORD)
(TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2013

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes for the purpose of facilitating the holding of a relevant event, namely, Folk on the Green, which is being promoted by Mr Bob Adams and to enable members of the public to watch the event, intends to make an Order under Section 16A of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, the effect of which will be to temporarily prohibit all vehicles from entering, proceeding or waiting along the whole of Horsefair Green, including the suspension of the parking bays, between its junctions with London Road and Calverton Road and Silver Street, Stony Stratford and to prohibit all pedestrian access along the footpath leading from Cofferdge Close to numbers 13a and 14 Horsefair Green, Stony Stratford and along the footpath leading from Calverton Road to Chestnut Close, Stony Stratford.

The alternative route for northbound traffic will be to proceed via Silver Street, Market Square, Church Street, High Street and London Road and for southbound traffic to proceed via Wolverton Road, Queen Eleanor Street, High Street, Church Street, Market Square and Silver Street.

The proposed Order will come into operation on Sunday 9th June 2013 at 7.00am and will continue in operation for a maximum of 3 days or until the completion of the relevant event, whichever shall be the earlier, but it is anticipated that the closure will be in effect until 10.30pm the same day.

Pedestrian access to premises shall be maintained throughout the closure. There shall be no other exemptions from the provisions of the Order other than for emergency services vehicles, military vehicles on operational duties and vehicles used in connection with this event.

A copy of the proposed Order, a statement of the Council's reasons for proposing it and a map indicating its location and effect may be inspected at Central Milton Keynes Library, 555 Silbury Boulevard and at Stony Stratford Library, 5 - 7 Church Street, Stony Stratford, during normal opening hours and at the offices of Milton Keynes Council, at the address below, during normal office hours, quoting reference WL-P&E-007258-TCO-2143.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

Milton Keynes Council

Proposed Expansion of Brooklands Farm Primary School

Notice is given in accordance with section 19(1) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 that Milton Keynes Council intends to make a prescribed alteration to Brooklands Farm Primary School (Community School), Fen Street, Brooklands Milton Keynes, MK10 7EU from 01 September 2015.

Milton Keynes Council intends to increase the current capacity of the school by expansion onto a second campus.

The address and postcode of the proposed campus are not yet known but the school will be situated within two miles walking distance of Brooklands Farm Primary School and will be located on the Brooklands development.

The current capacity of the school is 630 and the proposed capacity will be 1260. The current number of pupils registered at the school is 276. The current admission number for the school is 90 and the proposed admission number will be 180.

The admission number at the new campus will be 90 and eventually it would have capacity for 630 pupils. It is expected that in September 2015, the campus would initially offer places in years R, 1, 2, 3 and possibly 4 and then grow its numbers incrementally each year. It is likely that this would mean opening 30 places in each year group in the first year and then each year after increasing up to the number of places available. A slow incremental growth is expected to support the managed development of the second campus, protect places for the future community and avoid causing instability at the existing site and other neighbouring schools.

This Notice is an extract from the complete proposal. Copies of the complete proposal can be obtained from: Marie Denny, Head of Delivery, Setting and School Sufficiency and Access, Milton Keynes Council, 502 Avebury Boulevard, Milton Keynes, MK9 3HS. Within six weeks from the date of publication of these proposals, any person may object to or make comments on the proposal by sending them to the address above. Objections and comments may also be emailed to: school-organisation-planning@milton-keynes.gov.uk

Signed: Gail Tolley, Corporate Director, Children and Families

No wonder you love paper

Did you know that forests in Europe, which provide wood for making into paper and many other widely used materials, are 30% larger than in 1950? In fact they're increasing by 1.5 million football pitches every year.†

If you love reading your favourite newspaper, isn't it good to know that it's made from natural and renewable wood.

Two Sides is an industry initiative to promote the responsible use of print and paper as a uniquely powerful and natural communications medium.

Body Shop Vehicle accident repair specialists
Milton Keynes, Buckinghamshire

Company or lease car returns ...
Refurbishing your fleet vehicles can save you big time. The cost of repairs from D & A Auto Group is a fraction of what you could very well end up paying in penalties for returning damaged vehicles to your leasing agent / fleet provider. Our approach to fleet repair work is simple - restore vehicles to meet the guidelines laid out in your Fleet Wear and Tear documentation so you avoid penalty fees.

CRICKET

STONY Stratford (111/2) bounced back from their defeat on opening weekend with an eight wicket victory at Wellingborough Town (109 all out) in the Northants Cricket League Premier.

After being asked to field, Steve Bellew dismissed Wellingborough's top five, who were at one point struggling on 8/4.

Bellew finished with figures of 5/42, and Ben Duckett top scored with an unbeaten 42 in the comfortable chase.

Stony (238/5) then made it back to back wins over the weekend by seeing off Dinton (156 all out) by 82 runs in the Bucks County Cup round three.

Graham Simpson was the catalyst for Stony, blasting an unbeaten 110 from opener after Dinton elected to field.

In the Four Counties League Division One, Milton Keynes City (159/8) are the only side left with a 100 per cent record as they saw off Newport Pagnell (102 all out) by 57 runs at Willen Road.

New City MK (158 all out) lost to Olney Town (159/5) by five wickets with Marcus Bates posting 52 for Olney.

Milton Keynes CC (67/5) beat Elstow (66 all out) in a game for the bowlers which saw Luke Anamouris take 4/9 for MK and elsewhere they were defeats for Cranfield University and North Crawley who went down to Eaton Bray and Thurleigh by five wickets and three wickets respectively.

In Division Two, New Bradwell (175/2) beat near neighbours Old Bradwell (174 all out) by eight wickets with Chris Timms hitting an unbeaten 95 for the victors and Graham Downard registering 82 not out for the losing side. Elsewhere in the division, Aspley Guise (127 all out) beat Stoke Hammond (100 all out) by 27 runs.

There was also a win in Division Three for Open University (194/5) who beat Shenley Church End (193/8) by five wickets after a fine knock of 90 from OU's Alex Gray.

Great Brickhill, Bletchley and Wolverton get under way in the Cherwell League this weekend. Bletchley are looking for a scorer - anyone who can help ahead of the season opener is asked to contact Wasim Fayyaz on 07969433405.

This Sunday sees the Mayor's cricket tournament between MK Council, MK Dons SET, Open University, Jaipur Restaurant and Keens Shay Keens.

There's a 10.30am start in Campbell Park with a free fun day for the family running along side.

ATHLETICS

GREG Rutherford continued his strong run of early season results with victory at an event in Chula Vista.

The city's Olympic long jump champion registered 8.06m to take victory but didn't seem too impressed with his performance.

"Nothing special this year, 8.06 with some terrible run ups," Rutherford tweeted.

Elsewhere, Milton Keynes Athletic Club made a strong start to the season at the first Eastern Veterans League match at Biggleswade.

The men's team won by 20 points ahead of Fairlands Valley Spartans although it was more of a struggle for the women who finished second behind the same opposition.

On the club's home track at Stantonbury the younger athletes were third behind Cheltenham & County and winners Charnwood AC in the first U13/15 youth development league match of the season.

FOOTBALL

MILTON Keynes College were beaten 3-1 by Hartpury College in the British Colleges Final at the FA's new training base of St George's Park.

Matt Way gave MK an early lead which they held on to until half-time, but Hartpury responded with a treble of goals in the second half to clinch the title.

Rugby boost could propel plan for new Dons training ground

FOOTBALL

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

THE city's successful Rugby World Cup bid could accelerate plans for MK Dons' proposed new training ground.

That's the hope of manager Karl Robinson who feels that the sporting boost hosting England 2015 matches will bring to Milton Keynes may assist the dream of moving away from their current site at Woughton on the Green.

"From a selfish point of view it could push the training ground," Robinson said.

"It would be the support mechanism to everything we do.

"We spend every day at the training ground and once every two weeks at the stadium.

"I know the chairman is working hard to make it happen, and hopefully in my time I'll see that come to fruition.

"You'll see the benefits immediately. That's a fact. There will be reduced injuries and increased performance, better coaching development and better players coming through.

"I don't want them too soft though, sometimes it's still nice to go to Woughton and realise what you are."

Robinson said he would turn a 'blind eye' to what the rugby games would do to the stadiummk surface, and said that chairman Pete Winkelman was a 'Milton Keynes legend' for his work bringing the tournament to stadiummk.

Meanwhile, Dons have taken up the one-year options on the contracts of both Dean Bowditch and Shaun Williams.

The deals of both players were due to expire this summer but the

ONE YEAR
OPTION: Dean
Bowditch

club have used their right to extend the terms by 12 months.

It means that neither can now depart the club for nothing, but speculation about the future of Williams in particular is unlikely to cool following the club's announcement. The Irish player of the year is known to have many admirers and a move up to the Championship has been touted after Dons failed to get promoted from League One this season.

Along with Bowditch, Williams is now contracted at the club until 2014 and will be a player Robinson will be desperate to keep, alongside his compatriot Stephen Gleeson who has shone in the centre of the park when allowed to during an injury hit season.

Robinson and fans are still waiting on the signatures of players who have contract offers on the table, including full-back Adam Chicksen, skipper Dean Lewington and first choice goalkeeper David Martin. The manager has met with Winkelman this week to discuss preparations for next season.

Ed wins city's marathon

ATHLETICS

EDWARD Catmur was the winner of the second Milton Keynes Marathon on Bank Holiday Monday.

He finished in a time 2:46:59 and was followed by Stephen Hodges in 2:47:13 and James Gordon in 2:47:44.

The first female back was Andrea Green in 3:04:23, with Rebecca Mayles in second position in 3:08:29 and Sally Baker in third in 3:10:42.

More than 3,000 took part in the race which in contrast to last year was run in sweltering conditions.

A number of spectators lined the course before the big finish inside stadiummk.

The Mayor of Milton Keynes got the runners on their way at 10 am after 30 seconds silence in memory of those who lost their lives at this year's Boston Marathon.

When the main race had departed it was the turn of the Superhero Fun Runners who had turned out in force to run 2.6km and experience the thrill of crossing the finish line as a hero.

Popular costumes were Batman and Spiderman, and two Star Wars Storm Troopers from the UK Garrison led the runners over the start line of the race, aided by volunteers from Acorn Childcare.

The Geoffrey Leaver Corporate Relay Challenge was won by the Network Rail Team A Couple of Peanuts in a time of 3:00:28.

Known as the Green Marathon, the 26.2 mile course took in many of the city's tree lined boulevards, parks and lakes.

Shield win for City boys

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes won the Lewis Shield at Franklin's Gardens - seeing off Towcestrians 21-17.

City travelled to the home of Northampton Saints and won the tournament for the first time in 28 years, in front of more than 1,000 supporters at the Premiership ground.

"This was always going to be a hard encounter," outgoing MK chairman John Theobald said.

"In the end the prestigious shield went to Milton Keynes."

Ray Bray's side started the game well and took control of the first 10 minutes of the match.

Captain and fly-half Phil Powell had his kicking boots with him and slotted over all but one of the penalties he attempted during the game.

The scoring started with a long range penalty from Powell, and 15 minutes later the first try arrived for MK when Dan Rolf forced his way over the line.

This gave MK a 10-0 lead after 20 minutes, but Towcestrians were determined to make a game of it and had their chances to take the lead.

City allowed their imposing fly-half to make a break which resulted in a chance to score but basic errors meant the opportunity was lost. This happened on two occasions in the first half.

The City pack were dominant during the game and from the base of the scrum Dan Pearson, scrum-half, was able to dictate much of the play.

Towcestrians did manage a penalty in the first half but Powell added another for MK too to seal a 13-3 half-time lead.

After the break Towcestrians again had chances to score.

On one occasion they had a three man overlap and yet managed to knock the ball forward.

Soon after this basic error a missed tackle allowed Towcester to score under the posts and they were only three points behind City when the conversion was added.

City responded thanks to more good work from the pack which allowed Richard Hill, past captain and playing his final game, to score from the back of a maul.

A further score from Towcester meant that with 15 minutes to go City were just one point ahead.

Powell was able to complete the scoring though by slotting a final penalty kick between the posts, leaving MK with seven minutes to defend the lead.

"This was not champagne rugby but a hard physical match," said Milton Keynes' Timothy Wilcox.

City now say goodbye to Hill, Darren Brodrick and Stuart Tomkinson, all of whom are retiring after sterling service to the club. The victory comes in an excellent week for rugby in Milton Keynes - which also saw the city awarded Rugby World Cup matches.

RUGBY LEAGUE

MILTON Keynes Wolves are hoping to postpone Saturday's scheduled season opener at Kings Lynn Black Knights - to allow some of their rugby union players to recuperate.

Many Wolves players turn out for Milton Keynes RUFC who have seen their season extend over the last fortnight due to their involvement in the Lewis Shield - which means they have missed training.

With co-operation from Kings Lynn, it is hoped that Wolves can play the first match of their second season a week later instead.

"With the best intentions in the world, fingers crossed we won't be playing this weekend," Wolves club member Pete Nuttall said.

It hasn't been a smooth ride recently for Wolves, who lost coach Wayne Kelly after he suffered a season long injury while playing for Championship 1 side Hemel Stags, which saw him have to return to Northern Ireland. He has been replaced by Abe Kerr ahead of the new season in the restructured East Premier Division.

Nuttall said that the team was hopeful of progression after their debut year which saw them finish bottom after just one victory and one draw.

"We've found some players with good rugby league pedigree," he said.

"Rather than teaching union players to adapt, these guys are genuine league players.

"There's also been a great showing of U16 players at training so the youth side of things is coming on apace."

Milton Keynes are joined by North Herts Crusaders, Stowmarket Titans, St Ives Roosters and Bedford Tigers in their six team league.

Any players are welcome at training at Emerson Valley, at 7pm on Wednesdays.

TABLE TENNIS

ANDREW Baggaley and England claimed a bronze medal in the team event at the Commonwealth Table Tennis Championships in Delhi.

The city Olympian was beaten twice in the semi-final against host nation India who triumphed 3-2 in the tie to advance to the final.

He first went down 3-0 to Soumyajit Ghosh before he lost by the same scoreline to Sharath Kamal Achanta.

Before that stage, Baggaley had a perfect record as England safely negotiated their way through the group stages of the competition.

He beat Malaysians Dunley Foo and Muhud Shakirin Ibrahim as England recorded a 3-1 victory and he then whitewashed New Zealander John Cordue and Canada's Marko Medjugorac in a pair of 3-0 victories.

Wales and Australia were also beaten 3-0, with Baggaley beating Ryan Jenkins and Heming Hu respectively in those victories, and he wasn't involved as England went down 3-0 to Singapore.

Thirty-year-old Baggaley has five Commonwealth Games medals, including two golds, and was very much the experienced head in an England squad which also included Danny Reed, Sam Walker and Chris Doran. Rivals Paul Drinkhall and Liam Pitchford were not involved in the squad.

WORLD TOURING CARS

Nash enjoying battles with the best

CITY racer James Nash has spoken of the satisfaction he gets from holding off the challenge of the world's best.

The 27-year-old is enjoying himself in his second season in the World Touring Cars Championship after an often frustrating debut campaign.

Last year, Nash finished 20th overall for Team Aon during a season which was littered with setbacks and retirements, but a summer move to Bamboo Engineering has significantly boosted his stock.

He is now behind the wheel of a Chevrolet Cruze - which possesses the firepower to allow him to compete at the top of the grid - and it is an opportunity he has grabbed with both hands.

After four rounds of the new season Nash continues to lead the way in the Yokohama Trophy for independent drivers, and he is fifth in the overall standings.

In the latest round at Hungary's Hungaroring this weekend, Nash picked up a ninth place finish in race one before coming home fourth in race two.

The second race in particular gives him pride as he held off the threat of three time world champion and current overall leader Yvan Muller, and two time Independents' champion Tom Coronel to finish above the pair, a clear example that he is a world away from the Team Aon days.

"I'm still getting used to the car but the second race was a great battle," said Nash.

"I'm really proud that I kept Coronel and Muller at bay to get a fourth.

"It's not about finishing fourth really, but the fact that I am in a place to hold my own against world champions."

Nash's lead in the Yokohama standings is now six points over Bamboo team-mate Alex MacDowall, and he is just three points away from the top three overall.

The races in Hungary came a week after the third round in Slovakia, leading to a hectic schedule for the drivers.

"It's been a busy two weeks," said Nash. "But I'm still leading the independents' and it's off to Austria now."

After finishing fastest overall in free practice two, Nash was held up by a minor incident which caused him to lose ground on Coronel's BMW and Chilton's Chevrolet.

He then ran out of laps as he attempted to claw back the deficit before his ninth placed finish.

In race two Nash suffered wheelspin which caused him to be engulfed by the pack, but he was able to make progress after avoiding a large accident at the third corner.

After some admirable defending Nash came home fourth, holding off the more experienced heads behind him.

"It's been a pleasing weekend for Bamboo," team Chief Executive Richard Coleman said.

"The circuit didn't suit us but the next race at

PROGRESSION: James Nash (right) has come on leaps and bounds since his move to Richard Coleman's Bamboo.

Salzberggring will be strong for us."

The season continues in Austria on May 19, before continuing at the Moscow Raceway in Robinson: Football world is starting to accept us

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

KARL Robinson believes that more and more football fans are coming around to the idea of MK Dons.

The well documented story behind the club's arrival in the city from Wimbledon has led to numerous shots being fired in the direction of stadiummk, but according to the Dons manager the vitriol is beginning to fade.

He hopes that next season will see the club become more accepted than ever, although the 32-year-old concedes that some of the praise is spoken reluctantly.

"I think we're frustrating a few people as some now actually think 'they're alright those MK Dons aren't they?'," said Robinson.

"It's one of those things they don't really want to say but they do.

"There's a good stadium, they play great football, the fans travel well and sing loud. The kit is lovely and the pitch is nice.

"Milton Keynes itself is easy to get into and easy to get out of.

"There's a fantastic rail network for supporters. Why don't you like us? I think we're becoming an enigma. We're here now and we're here to stay."

Robinson feels that his club are worthy of their place among the footballing fraternity, and believes that a strong, core fan base has developed in the city.

"You get the odd muppet here and there who wants to put a dig in left, right and centre, but that's just a minority," he said.

"Ten years of rubbish and stick we've gone through, we can close the door to that in 2014 and become who we want to be.

"This year has allowed that to happen. I've spent half the club's existence here. The main core have been through this thick and thin.

STARTING TO ACCEPT US:
Karl Robinson

Picture: Andy Handley

"We're like real fans now. It's a coming of age. The tide's turning. There's a connection now for the first time."

This season on the pitch was a disappointing one with the club failing to reach the play-offs after much optimism at the start of the campaign. Robinson acknowledges that next year will be a 'big year' but believes the famous FA Cup victories in the grudge match against AFC Wimbledon (2-1) and against Premier League Queens Park Rangers (4-2) mean the season just gone has been a historic one.

"There's definitely been some lows this year but we've given the fans moments that will go down in history," said Robinson.

"In 30 years time you will be talking about when we beat QPR and AFC Wimbledon in the FA Cup. Fact."
